Prior to 1946, when it became the Second Directorate of the Third Chief Directorate, MGB, the Directorate of Counterintelligence Search of the Navy was organized into the following sections:

25X1

1. First Section, which serviced the General Staff of the Navy.
2. Second Section, which supervised counterintelligence in peripheral areas.
3. Third Section, which serviced the Administrative Directorate of the Naval Ministry; i.e., everything other than the General Staff.
4. Fourth Section, which was the operational registry containing the archives and files.
5. Search subsection (poznavnaya otbeleniya), which performed duties similar to those of the Fourth Directorate. This subsection was created in 1945 and its chief was (fmu) Bannikov.
6. Section B, which could be described as a technical support section. It was headed by Colonel Serotin.
7. Surveillance subsection under Colonel (fmu) Mashyutikov.
8. Secretariat.
9. Personnel Section.
10. Finance Section.
11. Administrative Section.
